TROU AUX CERFS CEMETERY / MALAGASY BURIAL SITE

The tombs located around the crater of Trou aux Cerfs are believed to be those of Malagasy slaves and/or their descendants, some of whom probably lived in the nearby 'Camp Malgache'. Also known as the Malagasy cemetery, this site has been identified as a site associated with slavery by UNESCO. Although the cemetery is no longer used as a burial site, rituals and ceremonies are still reportedly performed to honour ancestors. To commemorate the anniversary of the abolition of slavery, on February 1st, a wreath laying ceremony is held each year at the initiative of the Municipal Council of Curepipe.
